

How to have more meaningful conversations

Over the years I've met so many people that are interesting. One of my favourite things about meeting these people is that it is an adventure to know more about the world.

I get asked many times how I do it. So here is my approach!

1. Just do it
2. Skip small talk, ask personal questions
3. There is no room for negativity, instead find the things in common
4. Give a honest unique compliment
5. Ask for a simple opinion
6. Be present, eye-contact
7. Remember their details (Name/place etc)

Let me know how you go.
